

"I'm Julien Clemmen, a 28 years old front-end developer and webdesigner from Brussels. In 2010, I joined Emakina as front-end dev. The past few years, I became specialized in responsive integration and Drupal theming. In 2014, I joined Blue4You for new challenges."

"As a front-end developer, I care about the semantic of the HTML structure but with a strong feeling for design. Cross-browser and cross-device compatibility is more than ever a necessity. Mixing technical knowledge and creativity, I always do my best to deliver a quality oriented product to ensure a flexible and dynamic web experience."
